CLASS INFORMATION

REGULAR CLASSES

The following classes will be provided for both dogs and bitches.

Puppy, 6 months & under 9 months	Amateur Owner Handler
Puppy, 9 months & under 12 months	Bred-By-Exhibitor
12 months & under 15 Months	American-Bred
15 months & under 18 Months	Open
Novice

BRED BY EXHIBITOR REQUIREMENTS: All dogs entered in the Bred-By Class must be individually registered with the AKC, the person handling the dog must be a breeder of record and an owner or co-owner of the dog

BEST OF BREED COMPETITION: Effective for all shows held on or after July 1, 1980, dogs which according to their owner's records have completed the requirements for a Championship after the Closing of Entries for this show, but whose Championships are unconfirmed, may be transferred from one of the Regular Classes to the Best of Breed or Variety Competition, provided this transfer is made by the Show Secretary at least one-hour prior to the start of the judging at this show. (American Kennel Club Rule, Chapter 11, Section 6)

NON-REGULAR CLASSES – Involving Single Dog Entries

VETERAN CLASS - A class for Dogs/Bitches seven (7) years and older
Classes will be divided by age for both dogs and bitches:

- 7 years and under 9 years
- 9 years and under 11 years
- 11 years and older

4-to-6 Month Beginner Puppy Saturday only

- AKC registration number or an AKC litter number will be required for entries of an AKC recognized breed as listed in Chapter 3, Section 1 of the Rules Applying to Dog Shows.
- A foreign born dog may enter this class if they are registered in the country of origin.
- All entrants are to be vaccinated (including rabies) in accordance with their veterinarian's protocol.
- Dogs that are owned or co-owned by a professional handler may compete in this class, but must be handled by a non-professional handler. Professional handlers are defined as any person who belongs or has belonged to a professional handlers' organization, distributed rate cards, or otherwise advertised or represented themselves as handling dogs for pay within the last five years. Dogs may not be exhibited by current assistants and household members of a professional handler.
- Class will not be divided by sex

AKC NATIONAL OWNER-HANDLED SERIES

Sunday only

The AKC National Owner-Handled Series is a non-titling competition for dogs that are exhibited by their owners that are not professional handlers.

All dogs that are owner-handled and are not solely owned or exhibited by professional handlers* meet the requirements for this competition. Exhibitors must declare their dog is Owner-Handled eligible at the time of entry using the check box on the entry form. Eligible dogs will be identified by an asterisk in the steward's book & the catalog.

Dogs must be handled throughout the breed level competition for the regular show by an eligible owner*. Professional handlers, household members and assistants to current professional handlers may not exhibit the dog in any breed competition during the entire show.

Owner-Handled Best of Breed will be selected from the dogs that are competing in the Best of Breed competition including Winners Dog, Winners Bitch and winners of the non-regular classes.

Professional handlers are defined as any person who belongs or has belonged to a professional handlers' organization, distributed rate cards, or otherwise advertised or represented themselves as handling dogs for pay or received payment for handling a dog within the last five years.*

CLASS INFORMATION – Junior Showmanship Classes

The calendar for this class will be November 1-October 31 of the following year. All juniors meeting the criteria for this class are required to enter the Master Class and may change their entry the day of the show if entries have already closed. Once the eligibility time frame for that year has passed, all participants return to the Open Class to compete for the following year.

NOTICE: Junior Handlers must include their AKC JUNIOR HANDLER NUMBER on each entry.
You may obtain your junior identification number by calling the AKC, Judges Education Department

Each dog exhibited in Junior Showmanship must be owned by the Junior Handler or by the Junior Handler's father, mother, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, grandfather or grandmother including the corresponding step and half relations or by a member of the Junior Handlers household.

Bitches in season are not eligible to be shown in Junior Showmanship Classes.
At a Specialty show, each dog must be of the breed for which the show is held.

A dog that has been rejected - dismissed or excused by the veterinarian for the protection of the other dogs at the show or for the protection of the dog excused, may not be handled in Junior Showmanship.

Each dog handled in a regular Junior Showmanship Class must be entered and shown in one of the breed classes at the show, or must be entered for Junior Showmanship only. However, a dog that must be withdrawn for good and sufficient reason, such as a bitch in season or a veterinarian's excuse may be replaced by another dog meeting the same ownership requirements. Such substitution must be requested in writing stating the reason for the substitution and must be accompanied by an official AKC entry form.
